STANDING RULE

A five (5) minute question and answer period will be allowed following the introduction of Legislation. During this five (5) minute period, a call for the previous question will not be allowed.

If the Senate President should feel that a piece of Legislation should be allowed more than five (5) minutes for the question and answer period, he/she will announce this prior to the introduction of the Legislation.

Debate will follow the question period as stipulated by the SGA Bylaws and Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.
